

LONGDENDALE

READING REWARDS

Reading is rewarding enough by itself, of course, but to celebrate those of you who are doing that extra bit of reading, get working towards your Bronze Reading Badge – and earn achievement points too!

Complete one of the reading challenges below and earn yourself a Literacy Award (25 Achievement Points). If you can collect 100 Literacy Achievement Points (four tasks) you'll earn your bronze reading badge!

Illustrate a memorable scene from a book of your choice to show how you imagine it.

Write a story inspired by something you have read.

Write a review of a book you have recently read.

Rewrite a story from a graphic novel or comic into a short story.

Turn a novel (or part of one) into a comic strip / graphic novel.

Check out three books from the library and briefly summarise them.

Condense the ideas from a non-fiction book into an information leaflet for younger students.

Choose a character from a book you have read; write from their perspective. It might be a diary entry, a letter, or even redrafting some of the original story from a different point of view.
