

Year 11 - History

Curriculum intent	In their final year of History at Longdendale, students will continue their drive to achieve in the final GCSE exams. Through their study of the Cold War period study the students will gain a detailed understanding of events that have shaped our modern world. The chronology, causes and consequences of the events are investigated in detail. In the final depth study of Early Elizabethan England, they will investigate an important period in British history in depth. This topic will build a wider understanding of the significance of the period and the changes that were to impact on British history for many years. Throughout their studies the students will be equipped to apply their knowledge to the varied skills needed in the exams. In addition, their studies throughout History will leave them with an ability and desire to challenge opinions, use evidence effectively and reach independent conclusions in their wider life after school.
